JAMES BRYCE WILL RETIRE

[Associated Press Cable]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—It is announced that the Right Hon. James Bryce, British ambassador to the United States, has decided to retire from diplomatic life and to devote himself to literature hereafter.

It is understood here in diplomatic circles that Sir Cecil Spring Rice, now British minister at Stockholm, Sweden, will be advanced to the position of British ambassador at Washington, to succeed Bryce.

AUSTRIA MUST NOT INTERFERE.
LONDON, Nov. 10.—Premier Asquith, in an important speech at the Guildhall last night, on the occasion of the lord mayor's banquet, gave an intimation that Great Britain would oppose any intervention on the part of Austria in the settlement of peace terms between Turkey and the Balkan allies. "The victors should not be robbed of the fruits of their victories," he said, the announcement being received with great cheers. Premier Asquith was speaking for the cabinet, which had met during the afternoon.

Over-Night FEDERAL Wireless To the Advertiser

Orders were received by the foreign naval commanders now here to be ready to land marines and bluejackets at a moment's notice.

The Committee of Union and Progress accuse the Cabinet Ministers of cowardice while the army is said to be in the hands of officers who only wait an opportunity of overthrowing the Sultan. Mohammed as Abdul Hamid was disposed.

Rioting and looting is proceeding in Constantinople, the situation is desperate.

The ulamas sent by the Sheikh Ul Islam to preach a holy war among the soldiers defending the last ramparts of Turkey in Europe have been received without any great show of enthusiasm as the lack of a commissariat disgusts the generals and soldiers.

A Wendell Jackson, the United States citizen who induced Charles Birch Crisp to finance the Republican government of China without the guarantee demanded by the six Powers group of bankers, arrived in New York from London, yesterday.

He predicts a great awakening of the Chinese trade, and believes the way now open for a great intercourse of commerce between China and the Pacific seaboard of the United States via Honolulu. "The key to the Orient."

Among the thousands of communications and suggestions received by President-elect Woodrow Wilson since last Tuesday are many having reference to future appointments and the attitude of the coming administration towards the Pacific Territories of Hawaii and the Philippine Islands.

To all suggestions and advice the President-elect has turned a courteous but diplomatically deaf ear. He has determined to give himself and the country a rest from politics until the time appears when he will have to face the problems of cabinet-making and prepare for actual work of executive control, following the inauguration next March in Washington.

William Jennings Bryan has arrived in Washington and he will spend all next week conferring with political leaders preparatory to the official commencement of the coming Democratic era. Colonel Bryan will visit President-elect Woodrow Wilson before going to his winter home in Florida.

The great fourteen-inch wire-wound guns to guard Pearl Harbor, in Honolulu, in Manila and in the Panama Canal zone are more than up to the estimated war valuation of the expert ordnance constructors who have been engaged for months in perfecting the first models.

The navy board plans to increase the coal plant in Pearl Harbor to 200,000 tons capacity by increasing the height of the walls. Provision is also made for an increase of the liquid fuel capacity which is estimated in the original plans at 900,000 gallons of gasoline.

The launching of the Iron Duke from Portsmouth marks a new era in British naval construction. The vessel is the twenty-ninth British dreadnought to take the water. Her displacement is 26,000 tons, and her main battery consists of ten 13.5-inch guns, firing shells of 1400 pounds, or 150 pounds more than the projectiles fired by former weapons of this caliber.

The hull of the ship consists of three separate skins so that even if the outer ones should be pierced by rocks or torpedoes, the speed of the vessel would not be impaired.

President Taft probably will not be able to play golf again for several days. He played nine holes over the Chevy Chase links Saturday, and this morning woke up to find that he was suffering again from a slight attack of the gout.

An incident which occurred while King George of England was shooting recently on the Hon. John Ward's preserves in Woolley shows the monarch snared with many other persons the superstition about number thirteen.

The eight hunters were joined at luncheon by five ladies of a party at Chilton. The King noticed the uneven number and would not sit down until Donald Harding, the acting agent on the estate, was called in to make the number fourteen.

The Bulgarian army is now attacking with all its strength the remaining Turkish positions about Tchenalja, and the fall of these vital Turkish defenses in front of Constantinople is only a matter of hours, according to today's dispatches received from the telegraph's correspondent.

Jack Johnson's first night in the Cook county jail, where he was confined because he was unable to give a bond for $3,000, netted him six hours' sleep. A request by the big black pugilist that he be moved to a larger cell was denied. To add further to the negro pugilist's troubles, it is reported today that the United States investigation of Johnson's famous practices has only begun. Several other charges against him are to be investigated by the grand jury, it is said.

The meeting of the Republican national committee, which was called for Nov. 12 in Chicago to select a successor to the late James S. Sherman as Republican candidate for Vice President, has been indefinitely postponed.

The following transfers of officers of the Field Artillery were ordered today: First Lieut. Arthur H. Carter, from the Fourth to the Third; First Lieut. Thos. G. Sloan, from the Third to the Fourth; Lieut. Carter will be assigned to a battery and stationed by his regimental commander. Lieutenant Sloan will remain on his present duties.

Among the many passengers on the Manchuria are Paul Isenberg, prominent in the financial world of Hawaii, who is returning home after a stay of several months on the Pacific coast, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macfarlane and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Macfarlane, prominent in society and in business in Honolulu, who left for home after a stay of less than two weeks in San Francisco.

A Hawaiian seaman, Kalowi, who has been declared a leper and who was discovered on the battleship Connecticut, last week, is now on Mare Island. He is in a tent in the contagious camp near the hospital under strict surveillance. He was taken to Mare Island under the care of a naval hospital apprentice.

With sixty-nine precincts still to be heard from, the California vote tonight stands as follows: Roosevelt, 281,664; Wilson, 280,765—giving Roosevelt a plurality of 889.

Late election returns from Idaho show President Taft still the leader, but only by a small majority. It is said that the districts not received will show a heavy Democratic vote and will result in placing Idaho in the Wilson column.

According to complete returns from all counties of the state, most of them verified by county auditors, George Clark (Republican) is governor-elect of Iowa.

ONE DOSE MAKES INDIGESTION GO

All Stomach Distress Quickly Ended with "Pape's Diapepsin"

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. It's millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN HONOLULU

Local people are surprised at the quick results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, the German appendicitis remedy. The Hollister Drug Co. states that this simple remedy antiseptizes the digestive system and draws off the impurities so thoroughly that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY.

The new superdreadnought of the United States Navy, the 27,000-ton battleship New York, is to be launched with much ceremony. President Taft and Secretary of the Navy Meyer will be present at the launching.

A young couple from Fort Wayne, Indiana, flew 75 miles to Hillsdale, Mich., in the young man's biplane, and were married. The bride's parents, who had objected to the match, wired that they would forgive them if they would come back by train.
